AND
Public Health Accreditation Board Specialist

PREAMBLE

This agreement is entered into this 22nd day of February, 2023, by and among the undersigned, Sara Houchins (herein after referred as "Contractor"), and Galion City Health Department, 113 Harding Way East, Galion, Ohio 44833, its Board, officers and members, (hereinafter collectively referred to as, "GCHD");

WHEREAS, GCHD desires to engage the services of an independent Contractor to perform duties of a public health accreditation board specialist;

WHEREAS, the GCHD has determined that the Contractor is qualified and is a suitable and proper candidate;

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto, each in consideration of the mutual promises and obligations assumed herein by the other, hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:

ARTICLE I

Scope of Work and Deliverables

- A. With assistance from GCHD, Contractor will take on the main responsibilities for helping GCHD complete its requirements from Public Health Accreditation Board (hereinafter collectively referred to as, "PHAB") to become an accredited health department, as indicated in the Accreditation Committee Action Requirements (ACAR). The ACAR items from PHAB include items which are considered 'not demonstrated' or 'slightly demonstrated'. To become an accredited health department, enough submitted items need to be considered 'largely demonstrated' or 'fully demonstrated', with documentation submitted by the deadline.
- B. After helping to complete and submit all pertinent documentation for accreditation by PHAB's deadline for documentation to be submitted, Contractor will continue to assist in providing training as needed to a potential new employee or additional contracted employee who may also assist in maintaining accreditation.
- C. Contractor will complete pertinent trainings as needed.
- D. GCHD will provide Contractor with pertinent items to help Contractor meet the ACAR requirements. Upon completion of each requirement in the ACAR, Contractor will send all necessary materials to GCHD. GCHD will submit all Contractor created materials to PHAB for all to be reviewed at the same time.
- E. The Contractor will complete the work outlined above through June 30, 2023, at the latest.

ARTICLE II

Time of Performance

- A. Effective immediately upon approval by GCHD and Contractor, this contract shall be in effect from February 22nd, 2023, or upon execution by both parties, whichever is later, through June 30, 2023, unless this contract is suspended or terminated prior to the termination date.

ARTICLE III

Compensation for Services

- A. In consideration of the services rendered, GCHD agrees to compensate the Contractor in two lump sum payments. The first payment will be for $12,000 for work completed and to be completed on this project and covers expenses for all transportation to and from GCHD. This includes ongoing work on the addendum to the Crawford County Community Health Assessment, including data analysis, research, and narrative (Domain 1 of PHAB requirements), along with working on Domains 2-7, and Domains 9-12. A second lump sum of $7,967.50 will be distributed after the documentation to meet the ACAR is vetted and considered complete and satisfactory by GCHD staff, then uploaded into e-PHAB by contractor.
- B. Travel time to and from GCHD, along with other pertinent travel for meeting the ACAR requirements, will be included in the lump sums as explained in Article III, subsection A. Transportation will not be provided by GCHD for Contractor.
- C. It is expressly understood by GCHD and the Contractor that the terms of this agreement limit the total compensation for services to a maximum of $19,967.50 for the contract period set forth in Article II. The Contractor shall monitor the work performed under this contract and shall not continue additional work for meeting ACAR requirements under the contract if it will cause or is reasonably likely to cause the total amount paid under the contract for the contract period specified in Article II to exceed the maximum allowable compensation for services.

ARTICLE IV

Independent Contractor

- A. No agency, employment, joint venture or partnership has been or will be created between the parties hereto pursuant to the terms and conditions of this agreement. Inasmuch as GCHD is interested in the Contractor's end product, GCHD does not control the manner in which the Contractor performs this contract. GCHD is not liable for the workers' compensation or unemployment compensation payments required by Chapters 4123. and 4141. of the O.R.C., respectively. In addition, the Contractor assumes responsibility for tax liabilities that result from compensation paid to the Contractor by GCHD. GCHD will report any payment made under this contract to the Internal Revenue Service on Form 1099.
- B. No provision contained in this contract shall be construed as entitling the Contractor to participate in hospital plans, medical plans, sick leave benefits, vacation, and other benefits or to become a member of the Public Employees Retirement System (Chapter 145. of the O.R.C.).

ARTICLE V

Conflict of Interest and Ethics Laws

- A. The Contractor hereby covenants that she or he does not have any interest, personal or otherwise, direct or indirect, which is incompatible or in conflict with or would compromise in any manner or degree with the discharge and fulfillment of his or her functions and responsibilities under this contract.

ARTICLE VI

Records, Documents and Information

All records, documents, writings or other information produced or used by the Contractor in the performance of this contract shall be treated according to the following terms:

- A. All GCHD information which, under the laws of the State of Ohio, is classified as private will be treated as such by Contractor. Where there is a question as to whether information is public or private, GCHD shall make the final determination. The Contractor shall not use any information, systems, or records made available to it for any purpose other than to fulfill the contractual duties specified herein. All proprietary information of GCHD shall be held to be strictly confidential by the Contractor. Proprietary information is information which, if made public, would put GCHD at a disadvantage in the marketplace and trade of which GCHD is a part.

ARTICLE VII

- A. The Deliverables provided by the Contractor under Article I and any item produced under this contract, including any documents, data, photographs and negatives, electronic reports, records, or other media, shall become the property of GCHD which shall have an unrestricted right to reproduce, distribute, modify, maintain, and use the Deliverables. The Contractor shall not obtain copyright, patent, or other proprietary protection for the Deliverables. The Contractor shall not include in any Deliverable any copyrighted matter, unless the copyright owner gives prior written approval to use such copyrighted matter.
- B. Contractor agrees that upon the termination of his or her active contract status with GCHD for any reason whatsoever, CONTRACTOR will promptly return to the GCHD all manuals, records, correspondence, and other confidential information in his or her possession as well as supplies if any, issued to CONTRACTOR by GCHD for use in performance of his or her duties.

ARTICLE VIII

- A. Effective immediately, this contract cancels and supersedes the other existing contract of Sara Houchins serving as an Accreditation Assistant.
- B. GCHD may suspend or terminate this contract for any reason fifteen (15) days after delivery of written notice to the Contractor. GCHD may suspend or terminate this contract immediately after delivery of written notice to the Contractor if GCHD:

- D. In the event of suspension or termination under this Article, the Contractor shall be entitled to compensation, upon submission of a proper invoice, for the work performed prior to receipt of notice of termination or suspension, which shall be calculated by GCHD based on a reasonable percentage of the total services performed, as determined by GCHD, less any funds previously paid by or on behalf of GCHD. GCHD shall not be liable for any further claims, and the claims submitted by the Contractor shall not exceed the total amount of compensation allowed by this contract.

ARTICLE IX

Breach or Default

- A. Upon breach or default by the Contractor of any of the provisions, obligations or duties embodied in this contract, GCHD may exercise all administrative, contractual, equitable or legal remedies available, without limitation.
- B. If GCHD or the Contractor fails to perform an obligation or obligations under this contract and thereafter such failure is waived by the other party, such waiver shall be limited to the particular failure so waived and shall not be deemed to waive other failures hereunder. Waiver by GCHD shall not be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the GCHD Board President.

ARTICLE X

Amendments

- A. This writing constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to all matters herein. This contract may be amended only by a writing signed by both parties. However, it is agreed by the parties that any amendments to laws cited herein will result in the correlative modification of this contract, without the necessity for executing written amendments. Any written amendments to this contract shall be prospective in nature. When a new or different term or condition is added, additional consideration is not necessary to bind the parties.
