3.2 Discussion of Contract/Agreement with the City of Galion

Discussion occurred and the Board agreed that this would be something to agree upon since it focuses on the financials that the city provides for the health department. Mr. Sterling pointed out that the last paragraph still allows us to enter into other agreements for future needs.

The City of Galion will also have to agree to this as well and it will have to be written up formally by the law director.

Result: Tabled
