Nikki.

Good morning. I hate to keep bothering you, but I need to re-visit the issue of space at our department. I am wondering if we could discuss using one of the spaces on the utility side or upstairs if we spend the money to clean and organize the area. Even to be able to use just one additional office would really help us out....even thinking about the area beside the zoning office (to move someone in there). I know that there are bigger issues than this, but our shared office space is somewhat limiting productivity in some areas. If the answer is still no, please just let me know so we may move forward otherwise with cubicles or whatnot. Thanks for listening to me complain 😊 Have a great day and upcoming weekend.

Sincerely,

Andrea Barnes
